laimed the lipped through the Senate as a "local bill" although it affected county governments in Anderson, Oconee, Abbeville, Florence, Marion, Williamsburg, Edgefield, Saluda, Lexington and Aiken counties.

He said some senators from these counties were "horrified" at what the Senate had done and said they had let the bill go by because it was passed off as purely local legislation.

McLendon claimed the law change would allow decisions to be made by "less than a majority" of the delegations.

"You make for a dangerous situation when you rewrite the definition of a delegation," he said, calling for a more thorough study of the possible consequences.

"I don't believe that 25 House members want the minority to rule in county affairs," McLendon said.

McLendon sympathized with the Anderson delegation over its split senators but said, "Nobody has had more problems with a Senator than I have had. He referred to Sen. Ralph Gasque D-Marion with whom he has carried on a running battle.

"I don't want my senator with one House member to vote over the other three members of my delegation," McLendon said. "You're getting ready to do violence to the governments of 10 counties."

Schumacher, who watched the debate from the sidelines in the House, said the Marion lawmaker's fears are unfounded because the bill is carefully drawn to apply to just the counties in Senatorial District.

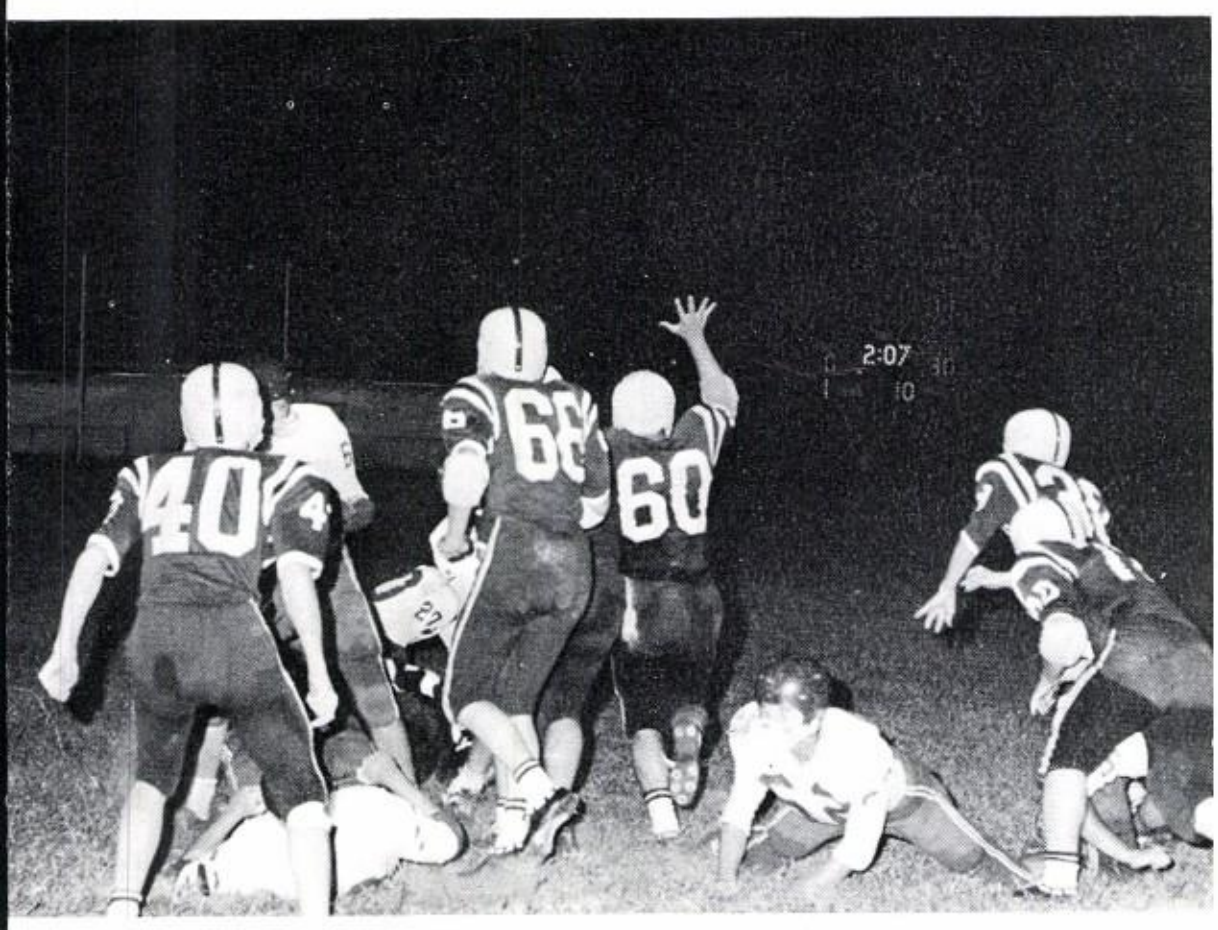
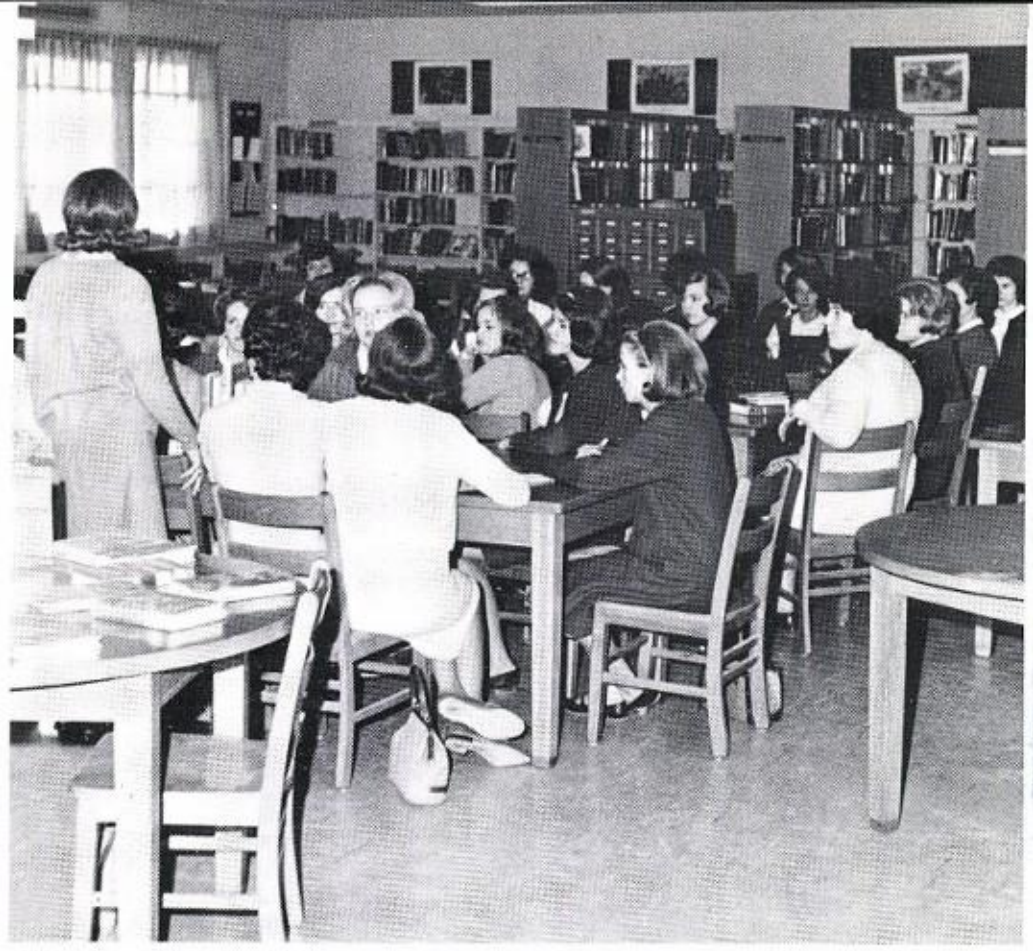
The senior, leader of campus life, is in a continual whirlwind of activities and studies. As school draws to a close, he realizes that his time spent at Hillcrest High School has ended. The last class—the last pep rally——the final farewell to friends——the last nostalgic chorus of our Alma Mater——all become cherished memories. This is not an ending for it is only the beginning, a commencement for all who are departing from or arriving at Hillcrest.

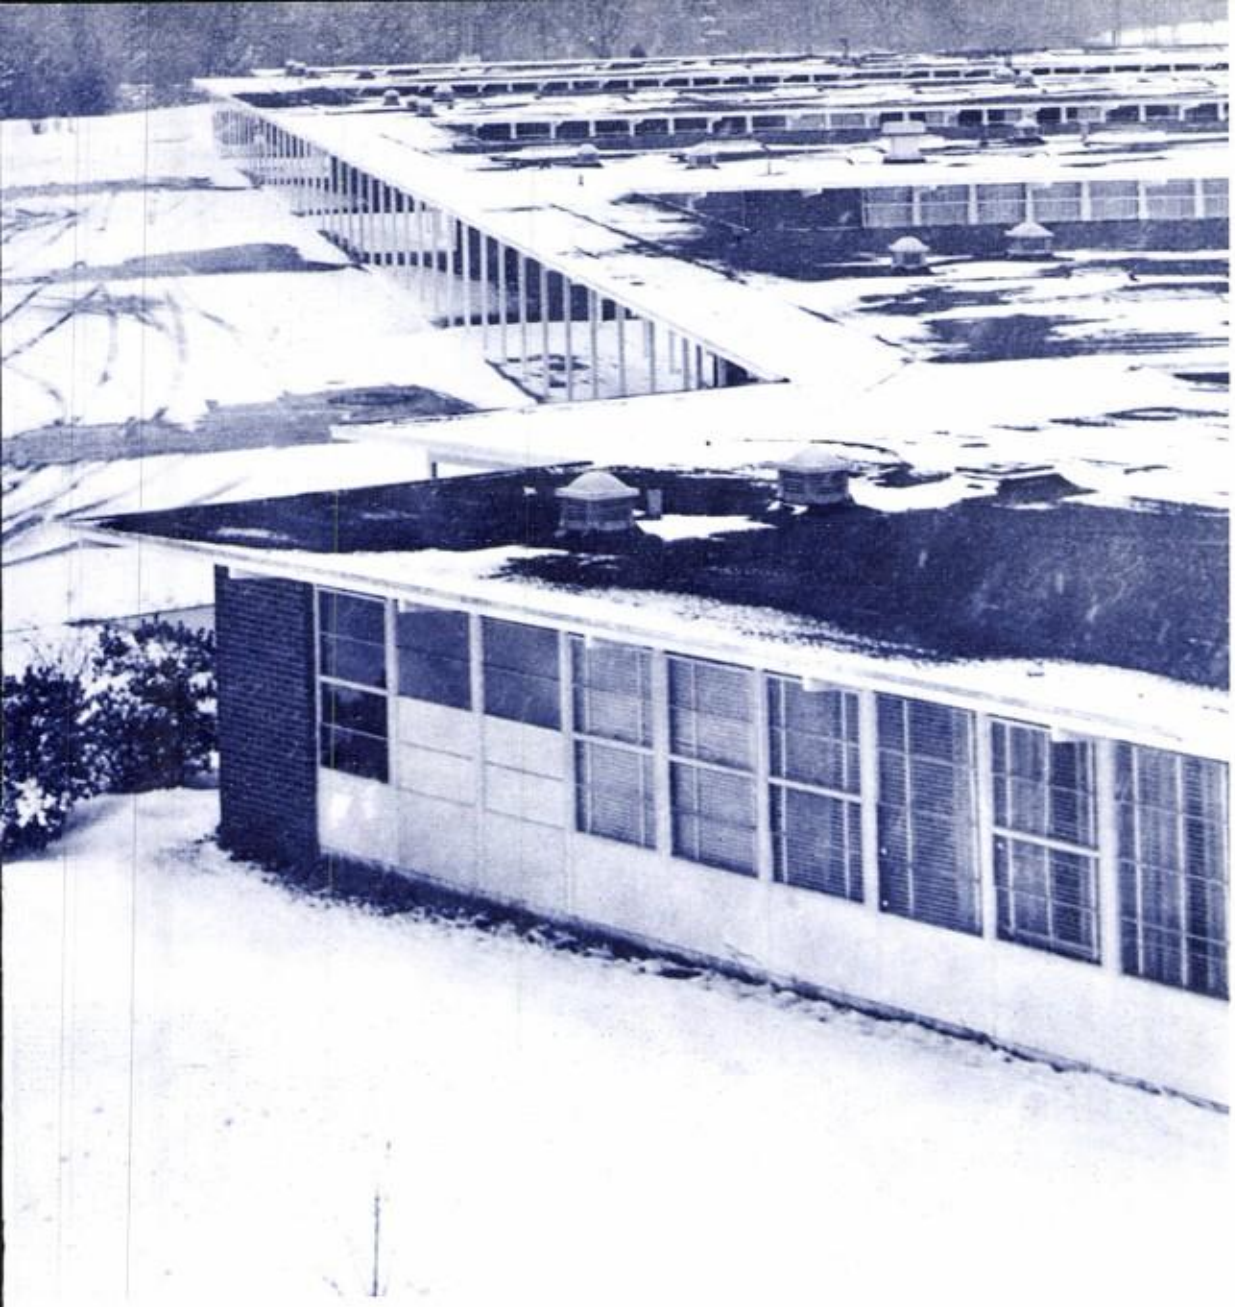
The students who come and launch their ventures on the Hillcrest campus in the early fall are confronted with many school activities. Everyone seems to reveal a true spirit as can be seen in faces cheering at football games and pep meetings. Enthusiasm continues to grow as preparations for the Shindy and powderpuff game begin.

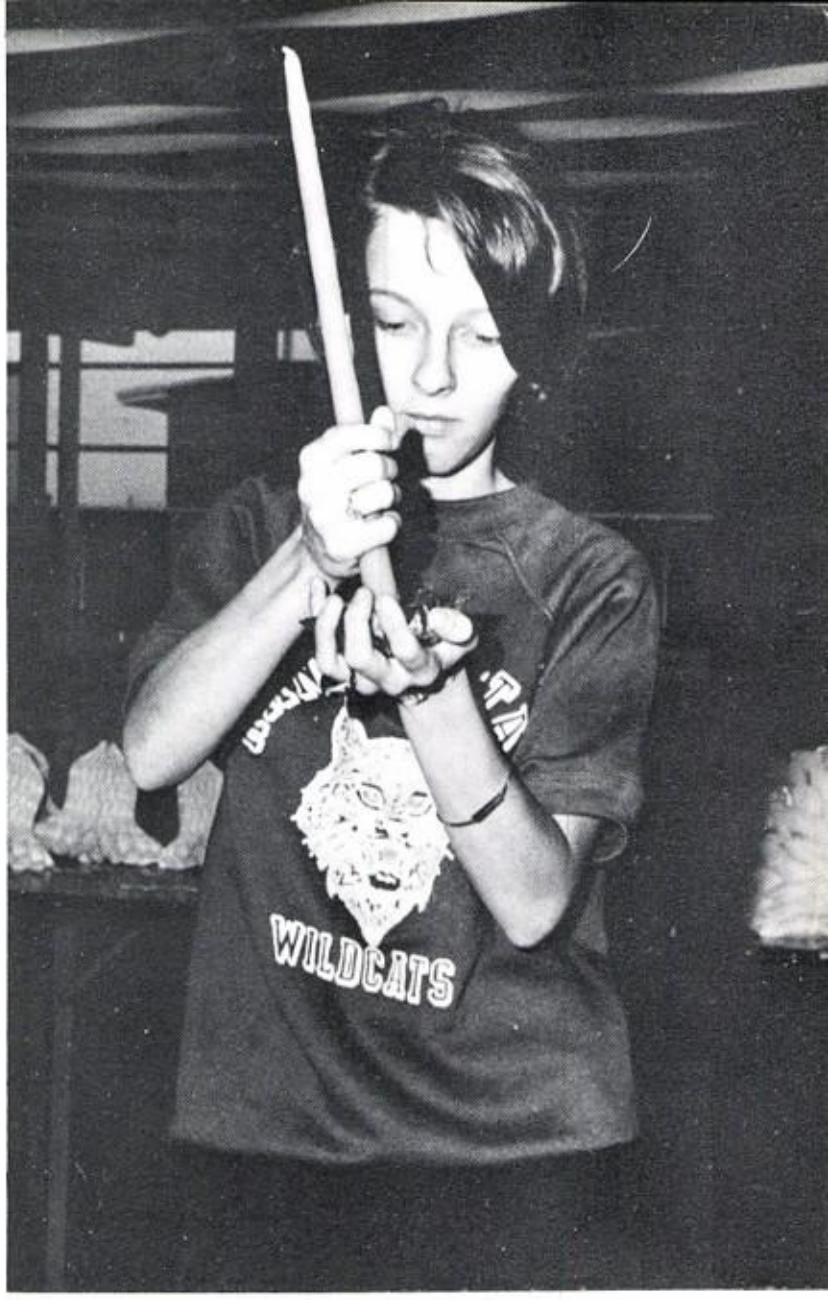


Around the latter part of fall, students are usually overloaded with book reports, term papers, and last-minute tests before Christmas holidays, but they somehow find time to participate wholeheartedly in club meetings. This is the time of year when everyone enjoys especially the dances sponsored by organizations within our school.

Eagerly awaiting spring, our students often find themselves engrossed in one activity after another, basketball games, intramurals, Junior Follies, and the always successful Valentine Talent Show. Following close behind are the plans for the eventful Junior and Senior Proms which remain among our most treasured memories as we near the end of another school year.







WILDCATS

Developing from the many varied activities is a spirit which at Hillcrest is a contagious, intangible presence. It cannot be seen itself, but its results are evident in the acts and attitudes of every student. This spirit is present not only at athletic events, but also in the long hours of band practice, the generosity of giving, the growing interest and respect for student government, and the devotion to all school activities. It is seen in friendliness to newcomers. But most important of all is the pride of being a part of an expanding Hillcrest Senior High School.

She supports all of our extra-curricular activities, works diligently at matters concerning our school, and makes possible the publication of our year-book. Her guidance and inspiration have enriched our school life. Her cheerful disposition, her loyalty, and her ready wit have made her a friend to each of us. In love and respect, we the staff of 1966, dedicate this edition of the HILLTOPPER to you — MISS JANE SATTERFIELD.

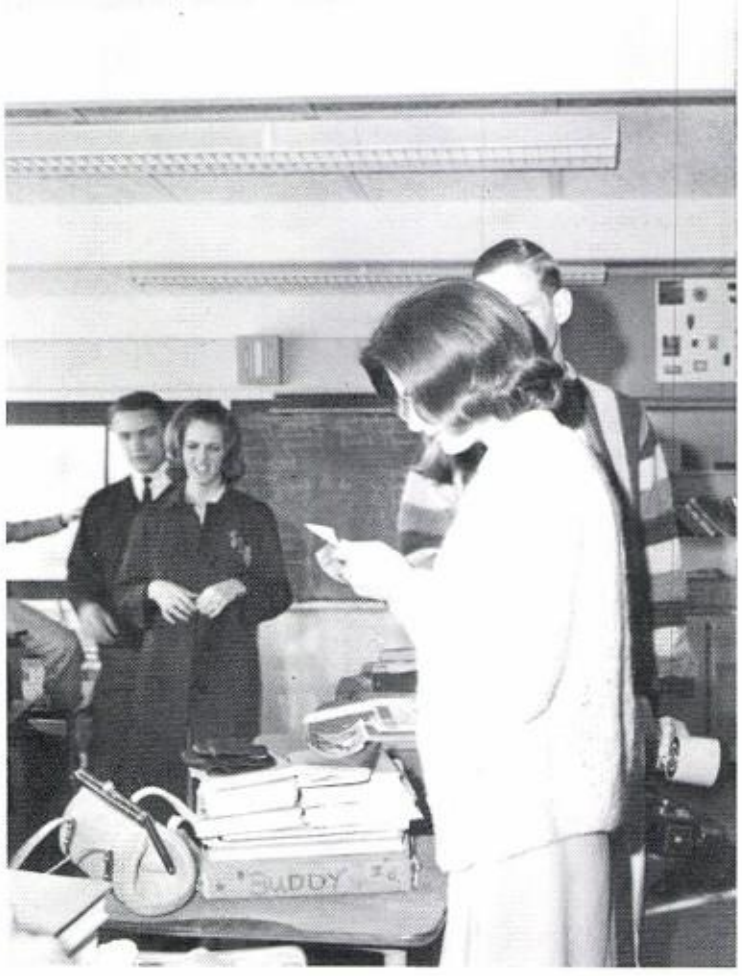
A JUST REWARD FOR HARD WORK...

This HILLTOPPER is for you, the students. Its aim is to present a history of Hillcrest High School 1965-66. To accomplish this a staff was chosen, the pictures of whom are shown on these three pages. Stress and strain of trying to meet deadlines, of not screaming when term papers, book reports, and tests all came at the same time that thirty-two pages were due at the printers, are not shown on these faces. You don't see the weariness of staying in D2 until 6:00 p.m. after school. More than any of these, however, the HILLTOPPER staff felt a sense of pride and determination to produce the best possible for the students of Hillcrest High School.

Junior annual staff members, Betty, Tricia, Ann, Deborah, Sue, Rebecca, Shirley, Ronnie, Bob, Vicki, Diane, Pink, and David, can look forward to much pleasure and hard work.



A typical first period for the annual staff.

HILLTOPPER Editor and Business Manager, Susan and Catherine, collect money for pictures.

After gathering news of Hillcrest's activities, the HILLCREST HIGHLIGHTS publishes the monthly issue of the newspaper. The staff, composed of journalism students, work hard to write news stories, accounts of sports and features. The English Department and individuals submit themes, poetry, and art to be used in the TREASURE CHEST. With a literary magazine, the students have a opportunity to develop and use their literary and artistic talents.

1965-66 HOMECOMING QUEEN

MISS CYNTHIA McGILL

With our boys well on their way to a victorious season, Homecoming 1965-66 was an exciting and festive event. Dressed-up students, graduates, and supporters waited anxiously for the announcement of the Homecoming Queen. After Mr. Chastain crowned Cynthia McGill, Senior, sponsored by Lewis Blackwell, Ann Campbell, 1964-65 Homecoming Queen, presented her with red roses. This climaxed a successful Homecoming.

VALENTINE TALENT SHOW

During the month of February, thoughts once again turn to Valentine's Day-hearts, flowers and candy. At Hillcrest High School the race for Valentine Queen and the confusion of Talent Show decorations and program-planning is on. These are some of the happy memories we will have always.

The thrill of being announced an attendant, of finishing the last-minute decorations, of practicing the act "one more time" - such memories will linger. The crowning of the Queen and the costumes, skits and acts of the performers - all these we will long hold dear.

Playing "The Baby Elephant Walk", Tim performs magic on the organ.

Amusing laughter rippled through the audience as Cathy portrayed an anxious mother at a talent show.

Brenda sings with feeling "If I Loved You".

Johnny, Randy, Ricky and Terrell present a lively tune to the audience.

The "Plumber's Friends" receive many good laughs as they go through their playful antics.

Singing for the last time, the "Seniors" dedicate "Memories of Hillcrest High" to the Senior Class.

Miss Koon and Mrs. Wheeler work hard to produce a successful talent show.

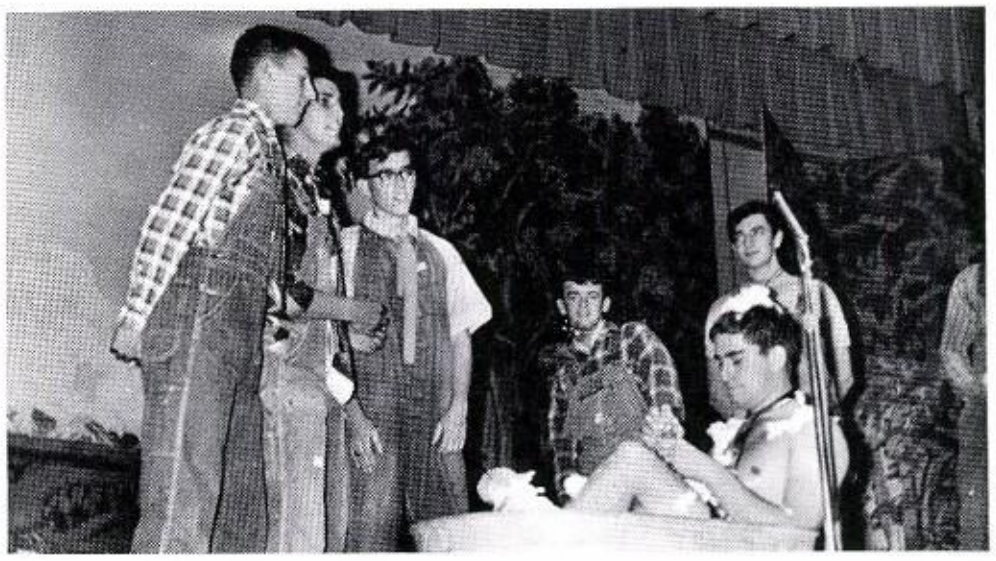
One day we will chuckle and meditate over the things we held to be so important in high school. Other things will become more meaningful, but . . . certain memories will always remain. Thus . . . "Thoughts of thee will grow more tender as time passes by."

Debbie crowns the new Valentine Princess, Nancy Alberson.

SHINDY

Singing "Five Hundred Miles" are Hillcrest's own Peter, Paul and Mary.

The "Seniors" display much talent as they sing their rendition of "The River Is Wide."



This group of senior boys brings a rousing response from the audience.

As they sing "Black is the Color" Carolyn Jo and Rebecca enthrall the audience.

The talented Billy Traynham sings "All My Trials, Lord."

ATHLETICS

RAMS HAVE MOST SUCCESSFUL SEASON

Assistant Coach Bill Brooks takes time out from his normal duties to keep score at the B-team games.

Head Manager, Bob Barnett, and Assistant Manager, Steve Smith, faithfully carry wet towels out to the players on the field.

The Rams reaped the rewards of their hard work and long practice this year. Under the instruction of Coach Eddis Freeman, the Rams posted a record of eight wins and two losses. Spirited effort and determination were the key factors in all the victories. They played top-notch football throughout the season with the exception of one game and one quarter. Coach Freeman fulfilled the vow he made when he came to Hillcrest. "Give me three years and I will field a team which will surpass all records in the school's history." In the final sportswriters' poll of the season, the Rams were rated seventeenth in the state. Palmetto was the only team in the Western AA Conference which finished ahead of Hillcrest.

The Rams drove 70 yards in the second quarter for the game's only score to defeat Carolina 6-0. Hewitt scored from four yards out after a 50-yard run by Balcombe. The Hillcrest defense, led by Lewis Blackwell, Bill Owens, and Frankie Garrison was too tough for the Trojans who never seriously threatened.

Chuck Ballew

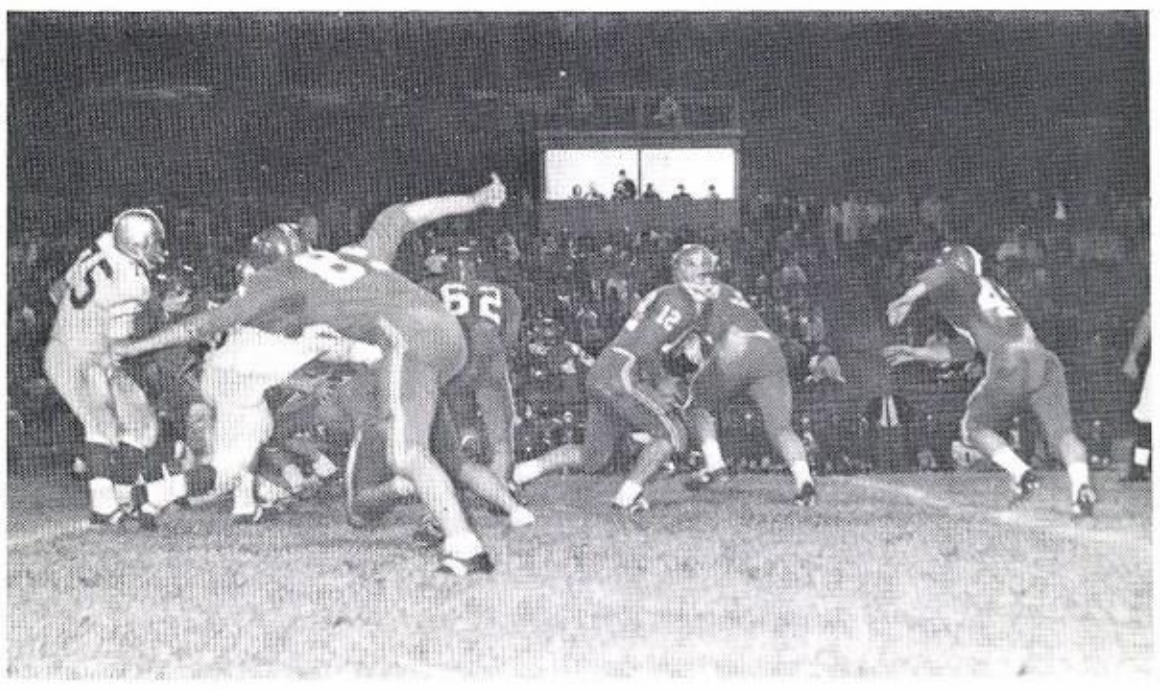
"And for goodness sake, don't drop it!"



HILLCREST 32 BYRNES 12

The Rams scored nineteen points in the last period to defeat Western AA foe, Byrnes. A 95-yard run by Howard Hewitt and a 60-yard runback of an intercepted pass by Leonard Sprouse were the outstanding plays of the game. Leading the Rams on defense were Lewis Blackwell, David King, and Bill Owens.

The blocking forms a little too late.

"Be sure and tell Hewitt which way to run with the ball."

"Hart, I told you it was my turn to make the tackle."

Coach Freeman is carried off the field on the players' shoulders after defeating Easley for an 8-2 season.

HILLCREST 6 EASLEY 0

The Rams won their last game of the year by defeating Easley, 6-0. This win marked the first time that Hillcrest had ever beaten them. During the second quarter, Henry Chastain scored on a twelve-yard pass. Defensive standouts were Lewis Blackwell, Tommy Lucas and Dick Kinard.

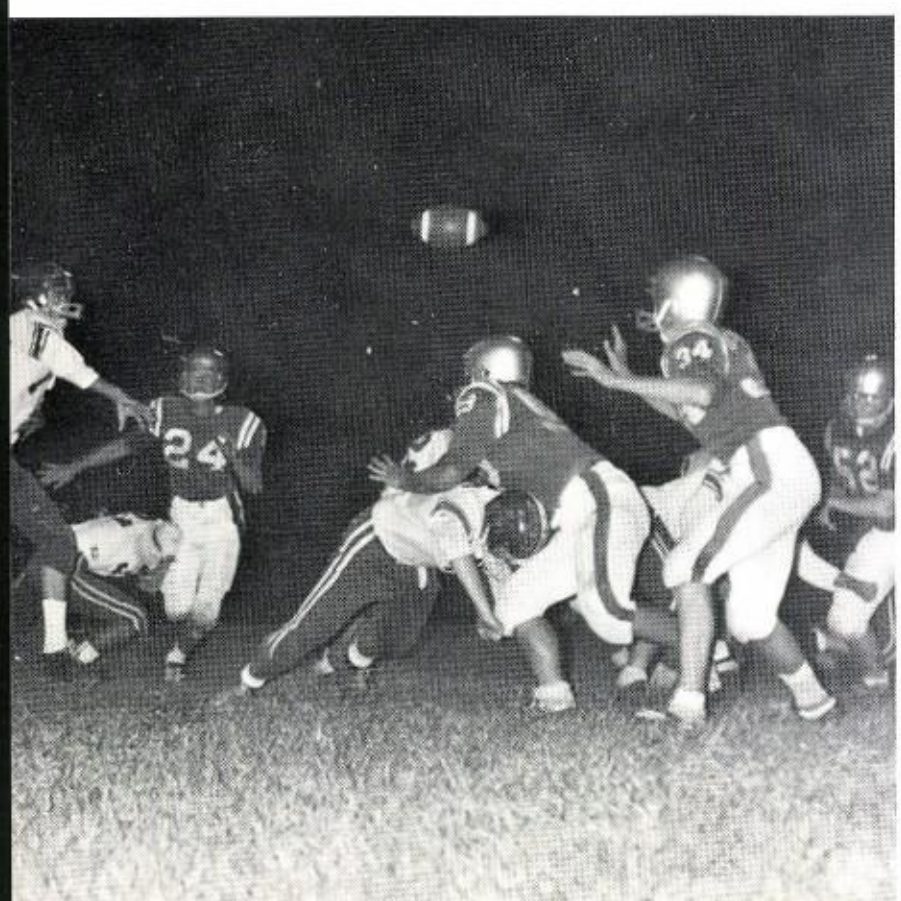
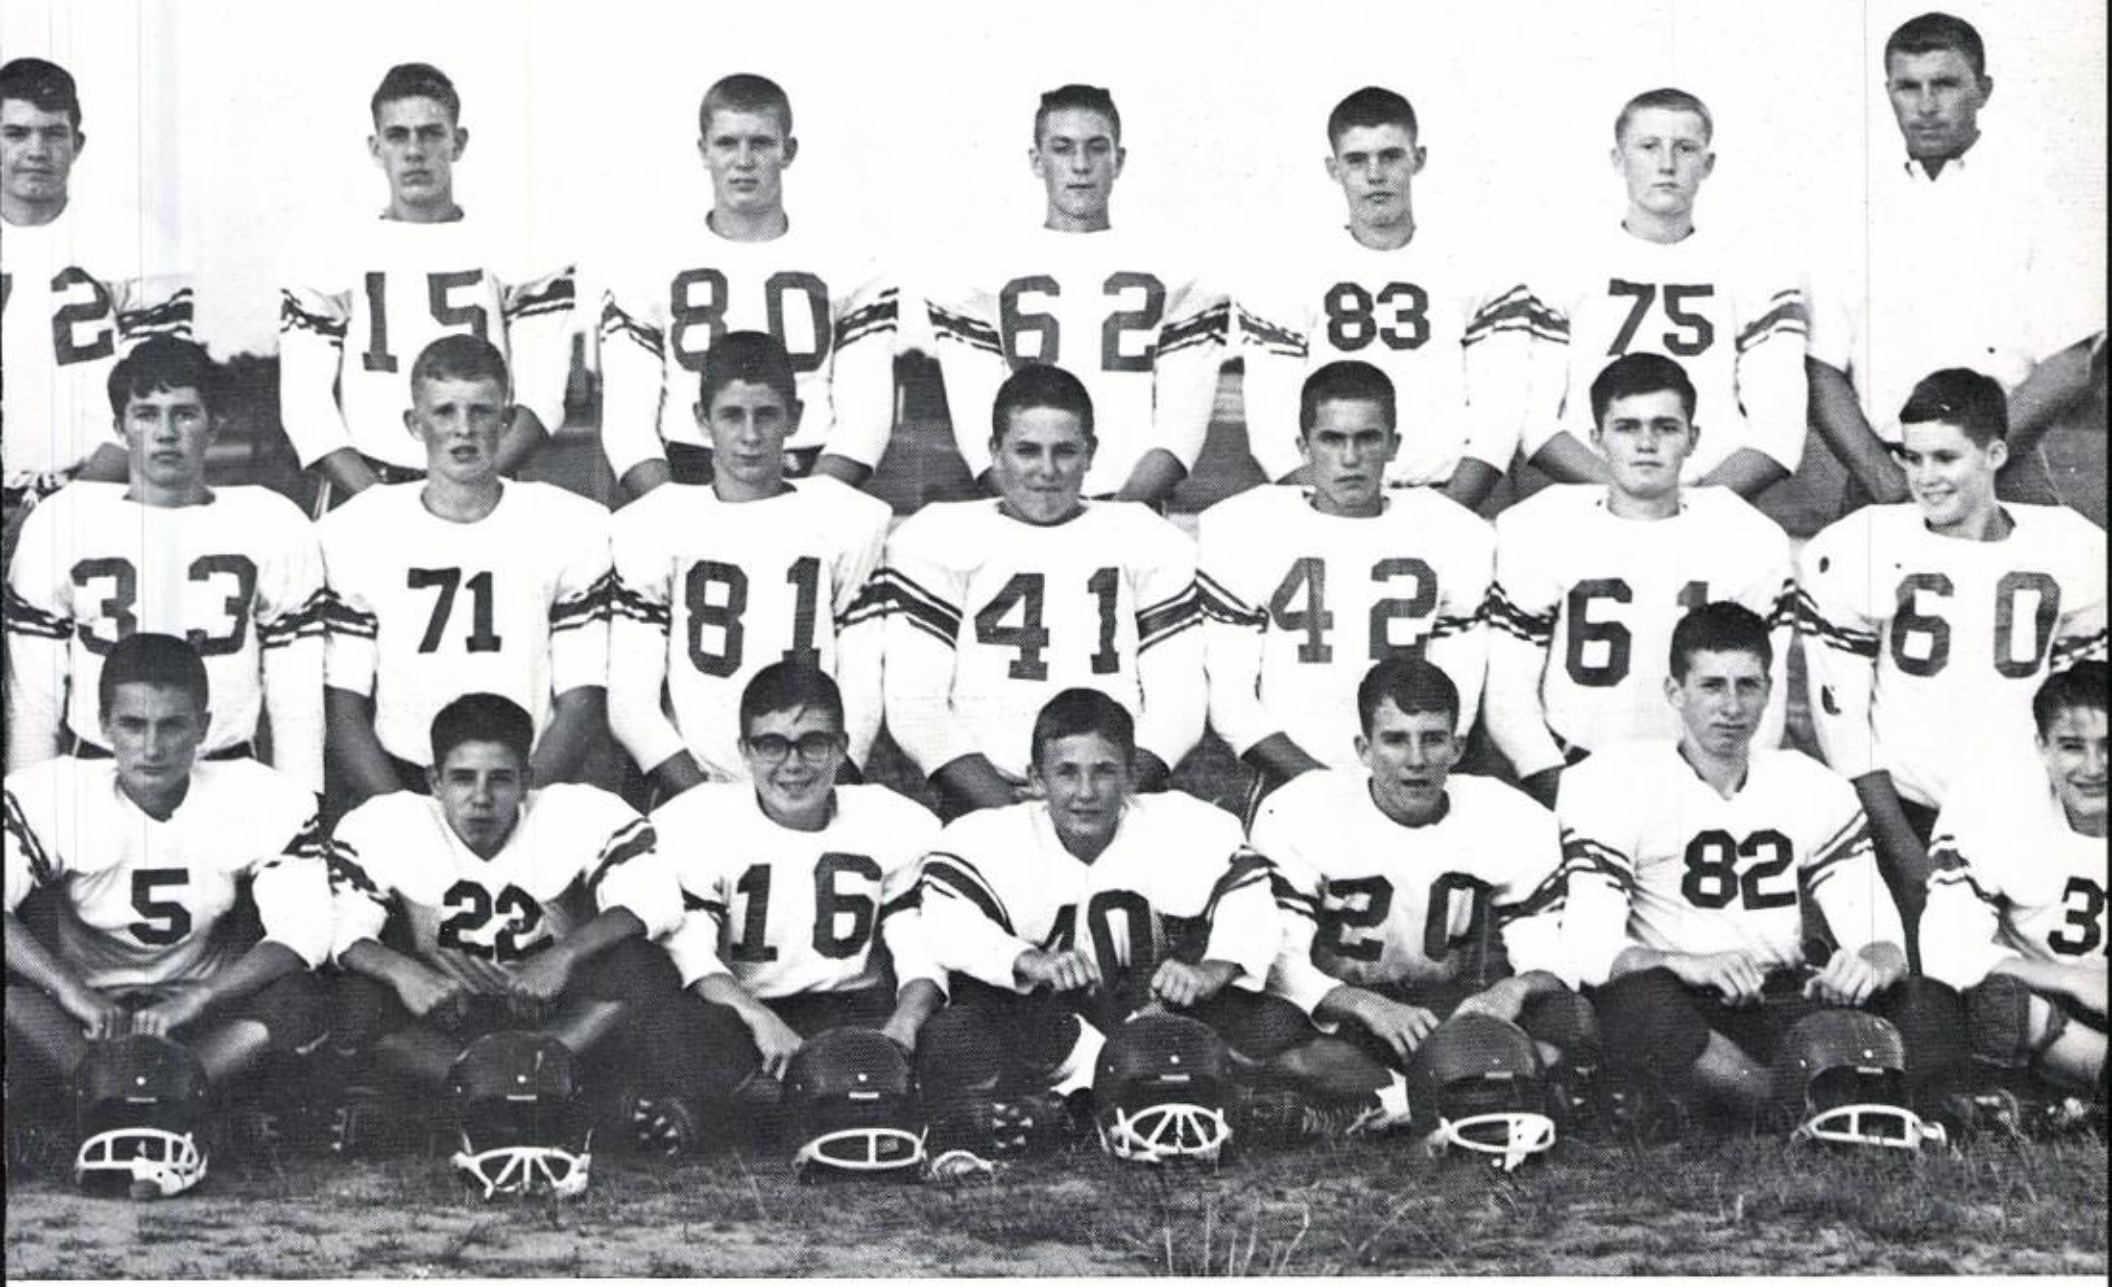
"Hope a white jersey catches it."





BRIGHT FUTURE FOR RAMS

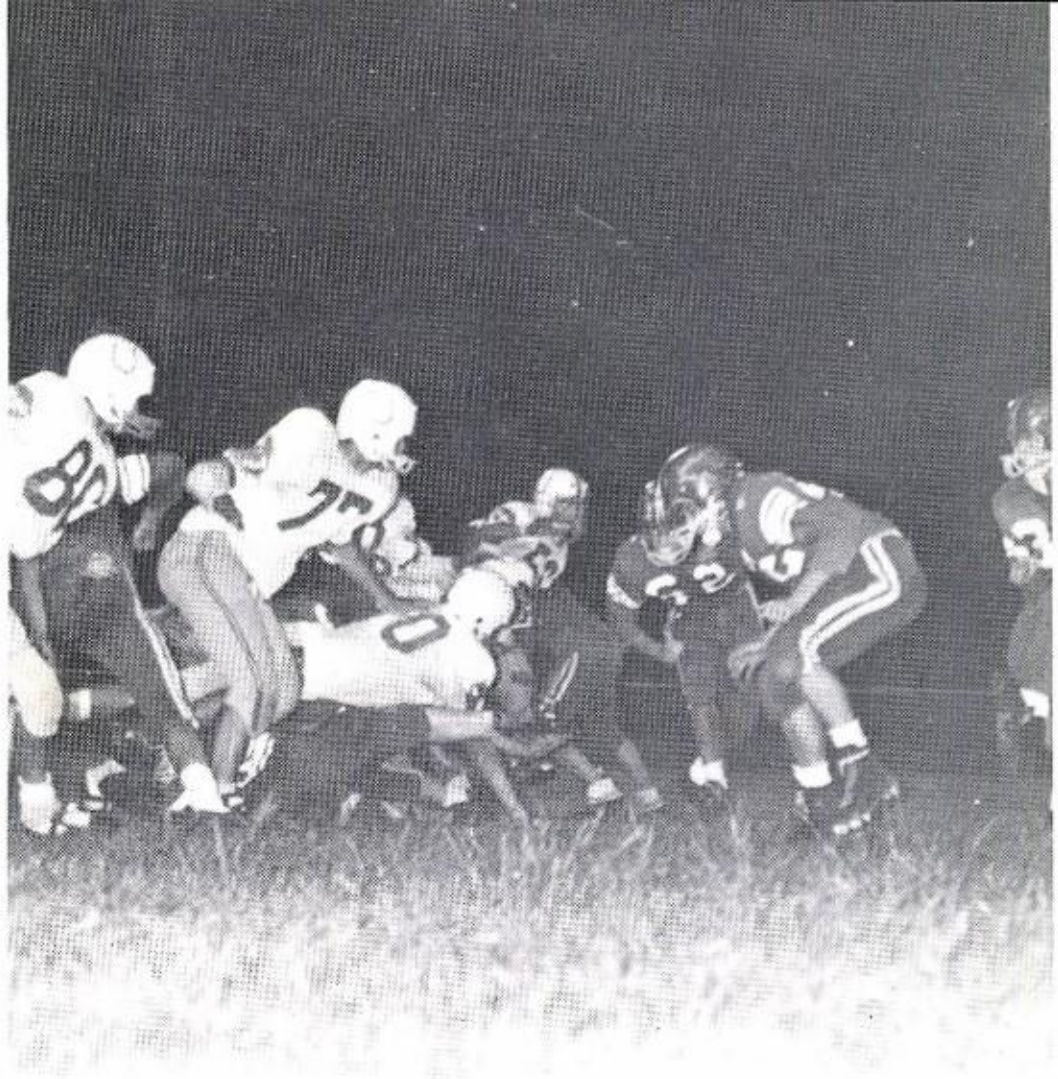
The Li'l Rams proved to have some good material for the varsity next year as they set a 3-4 won-lost record for the season. Among the victories for the B-team was a win over Greer, which marked the first time that a Hillcrest team had defeated Greer. They displayed much spirit throughout the year, and they deserve much credit as a fine team.

"Hey, what's happening?"

"I think we better go back the other way."

Brashier glances back as he goes around end.

"Stop, pedestrian crossing!"



When traffic is heavy up the middle, the Li'l Rams take to the outside.

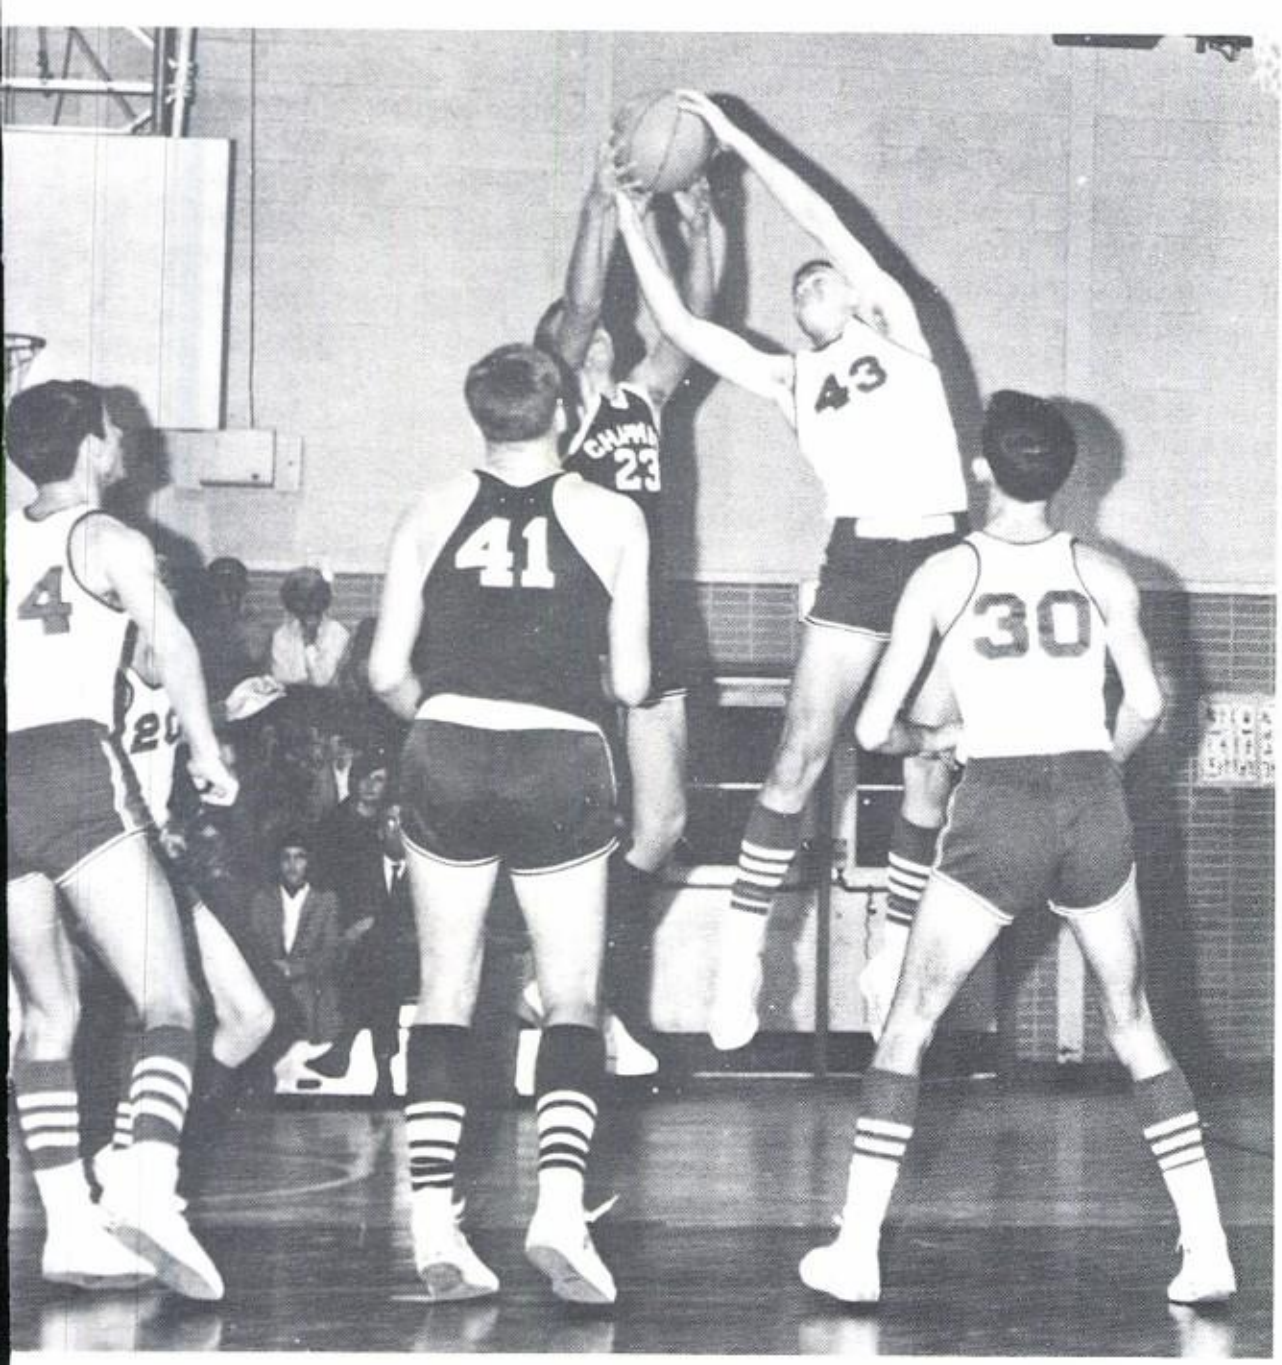
Head Coach Willie Mickle and Captain Gary Sutton are interrupted while discussing their game plan.



Jenkins goes high into the air for the rebound as other players close in.

In their first year with Coach Willie Mickle at the helm, the Rams suffered greatly from lack of experience. With only one member of last year's starting team returning, the emphasis was shifted to rebuilding. Even so, the varsity cagers came on strong to post a 7-15 record. Through hard work, determination, and spirit, the Rams became an explosive team which was a threat to all opponents. Much can be expected from them in the future.

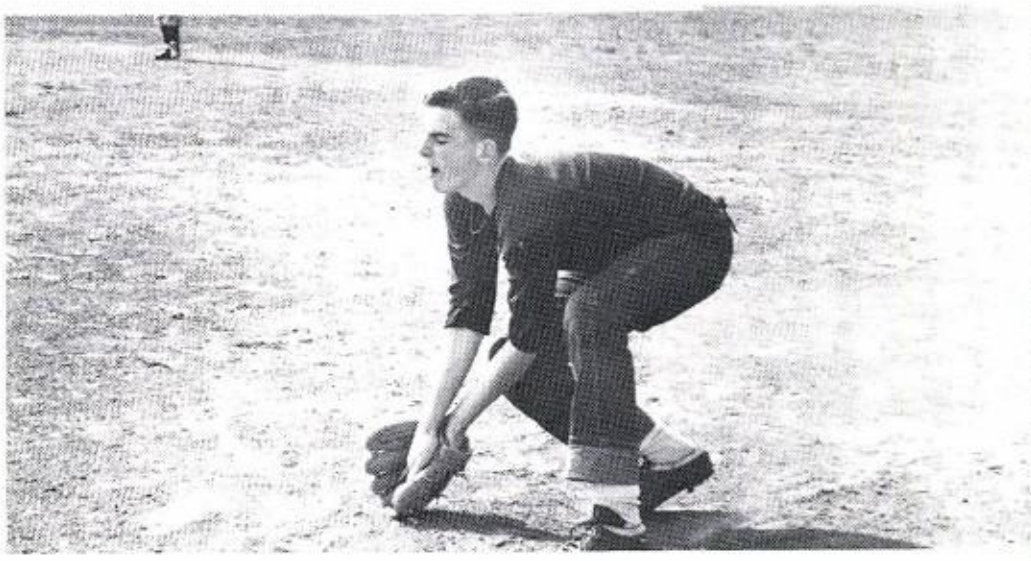
Wayne Green closes his eyes and prays that the ball will be there when he looks.



The Li'l Rams improve their hitting with each batting practice.

Coach Mickle keeps himself in shape by giving infield practice.

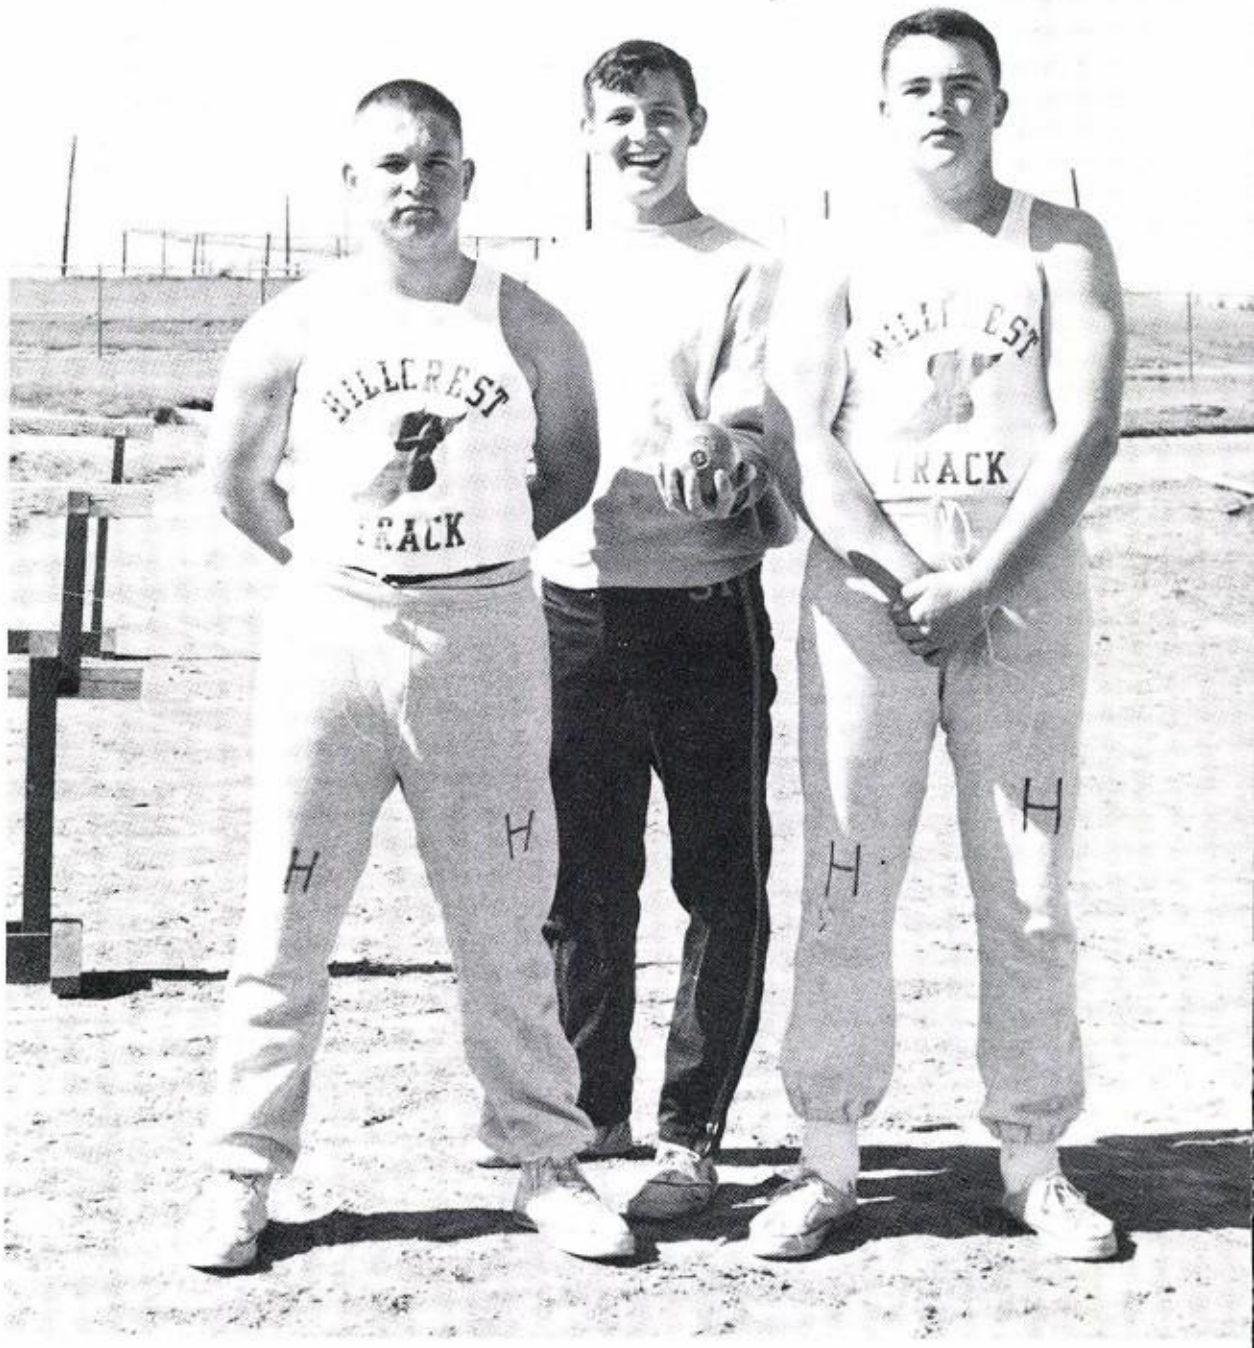
HILLCREST CINDERMEN COME TO THE FRONT

Donnie Moree, usually a weight man, flounders on an attempt at the high hurdles.

Coach Eddis Freeman keeps a record of how well his players do in competition.



To Balcombe, the high hurdles present no major problems.

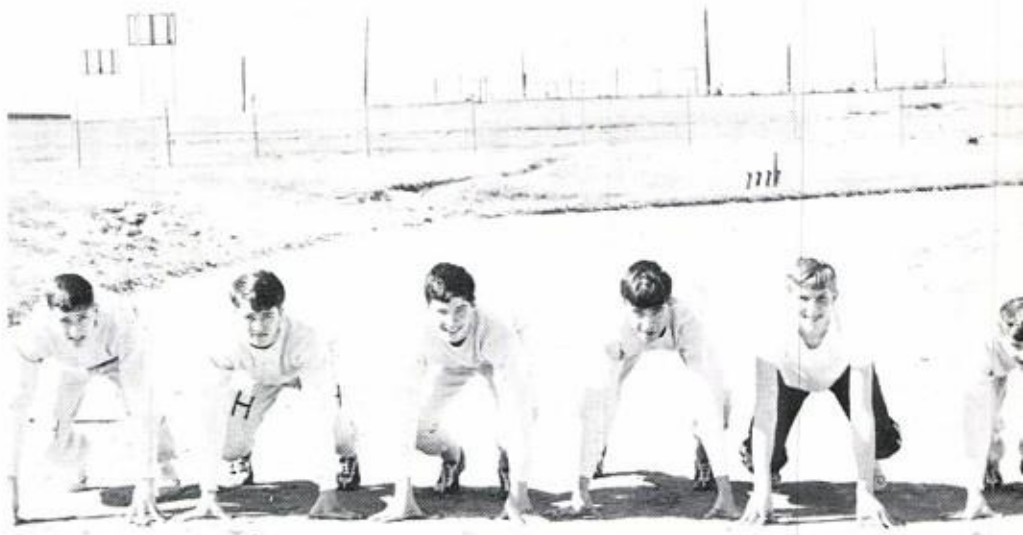
Robert Wiebel, Donnie Moree, and Frank Gresham are the weight men of the team; in both senses of the word.

Somewhere amid the crowd are Hillcrest distance men.

Grady Hart gives it all he's got in the high jump.

Bill Owens throws the shot as easily as most people throw a baseball.

The distance men compete against each other in practice.



Balcombe and Hewitt display their experience in passing their baton.

Ward Kellett begins the first leg of the mile relay.

"Dogs go for Dash"

Eddie Gault, Buzzy Smith, Dick Kinard, Pink Kellett, Bill Gault, and Paul Gault.

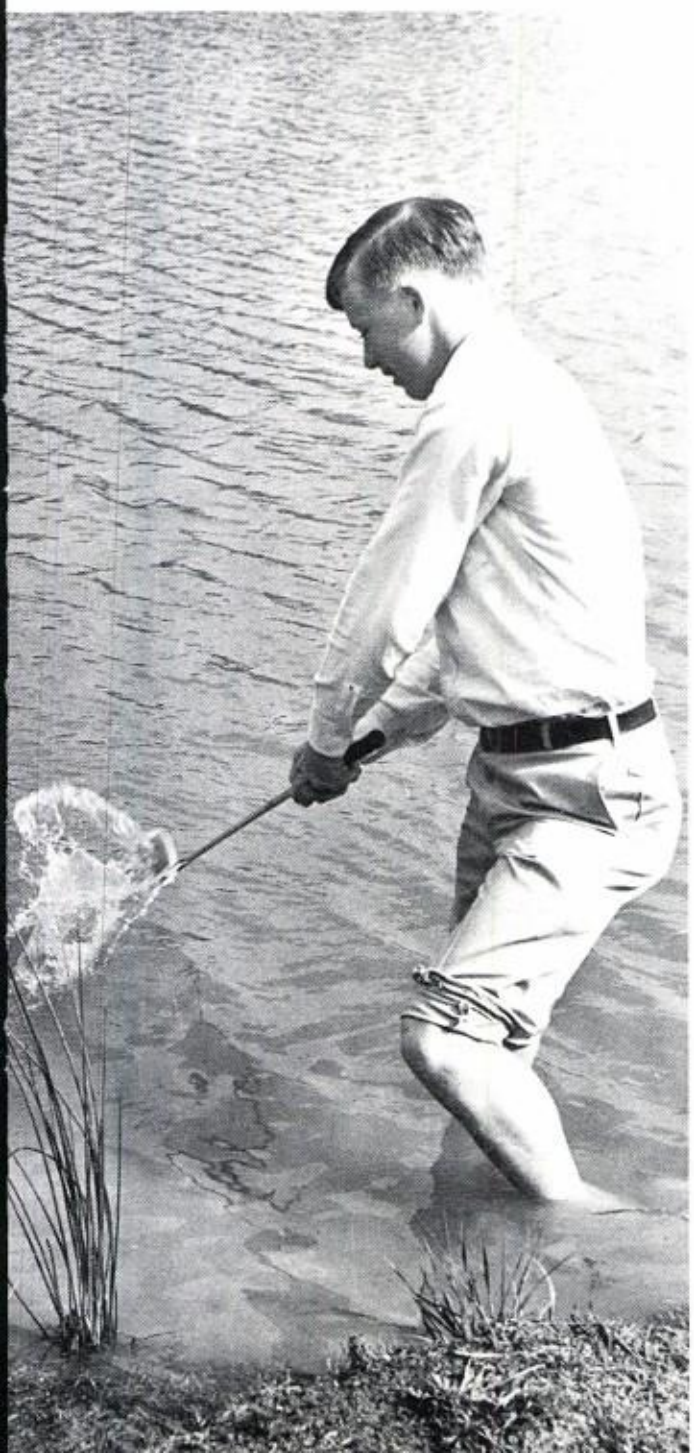
After a tiresome golf match, the Ram's linksmen relieve their tensions over a friendly game of poker at least, while posing for an annual picture!

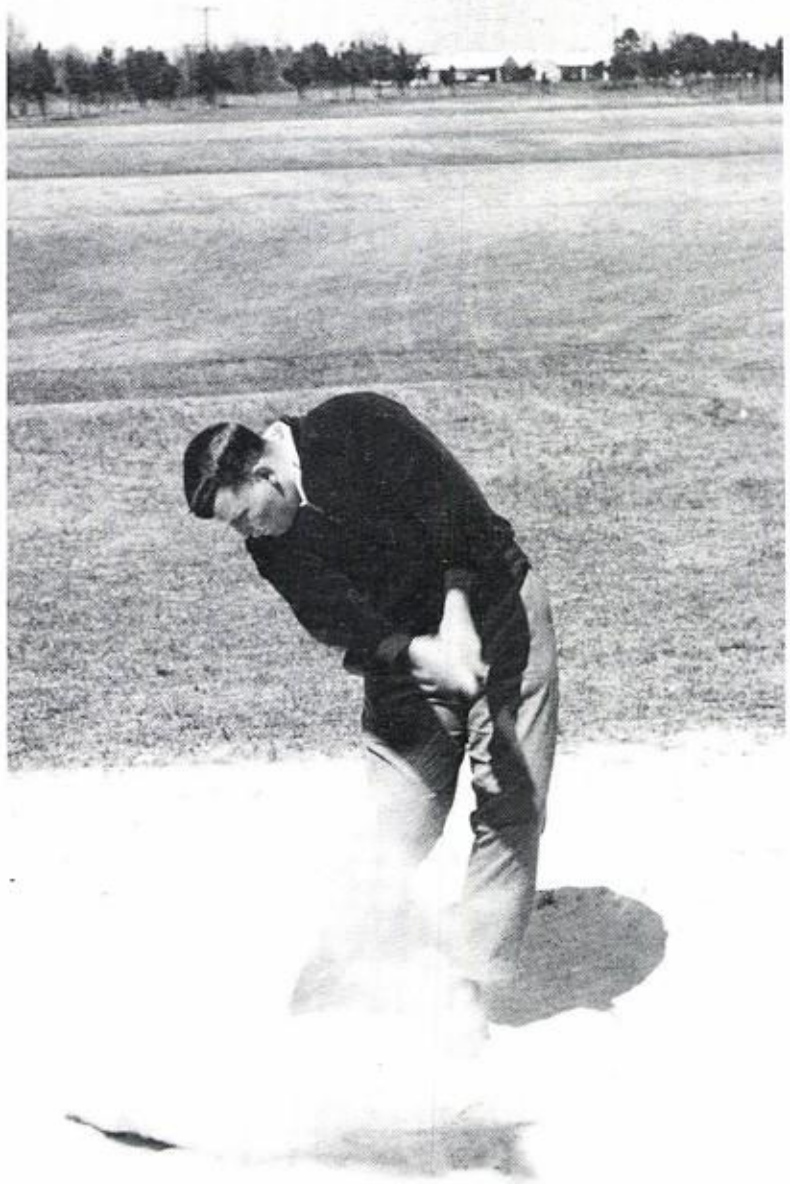
Paul Gault gives his long irons a workout in preparation for the next match.

Paul Gault decides to risk chipping the ball rather than take a penalty stroke. Knowing the consequences, Eddie Gault smiles to himself.

Pink Kellett retrieves a shot that was a little off target.

LINKSTERS PROVE THEIR ABILITY



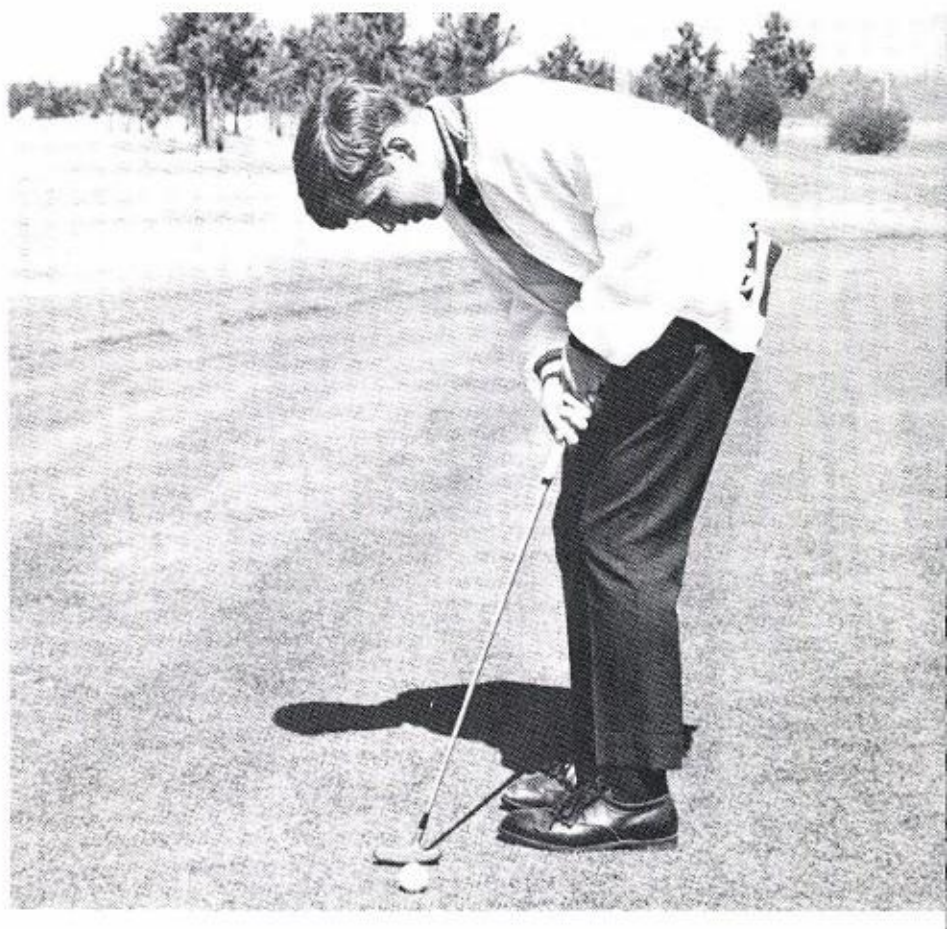


Bill Gault displays the form that earned him an advanced Swimmer's badge last summer.

Kinard looks back at the sand to make sure he didn't miss the ball.

Playing from the trees does not bother Bill or his score.

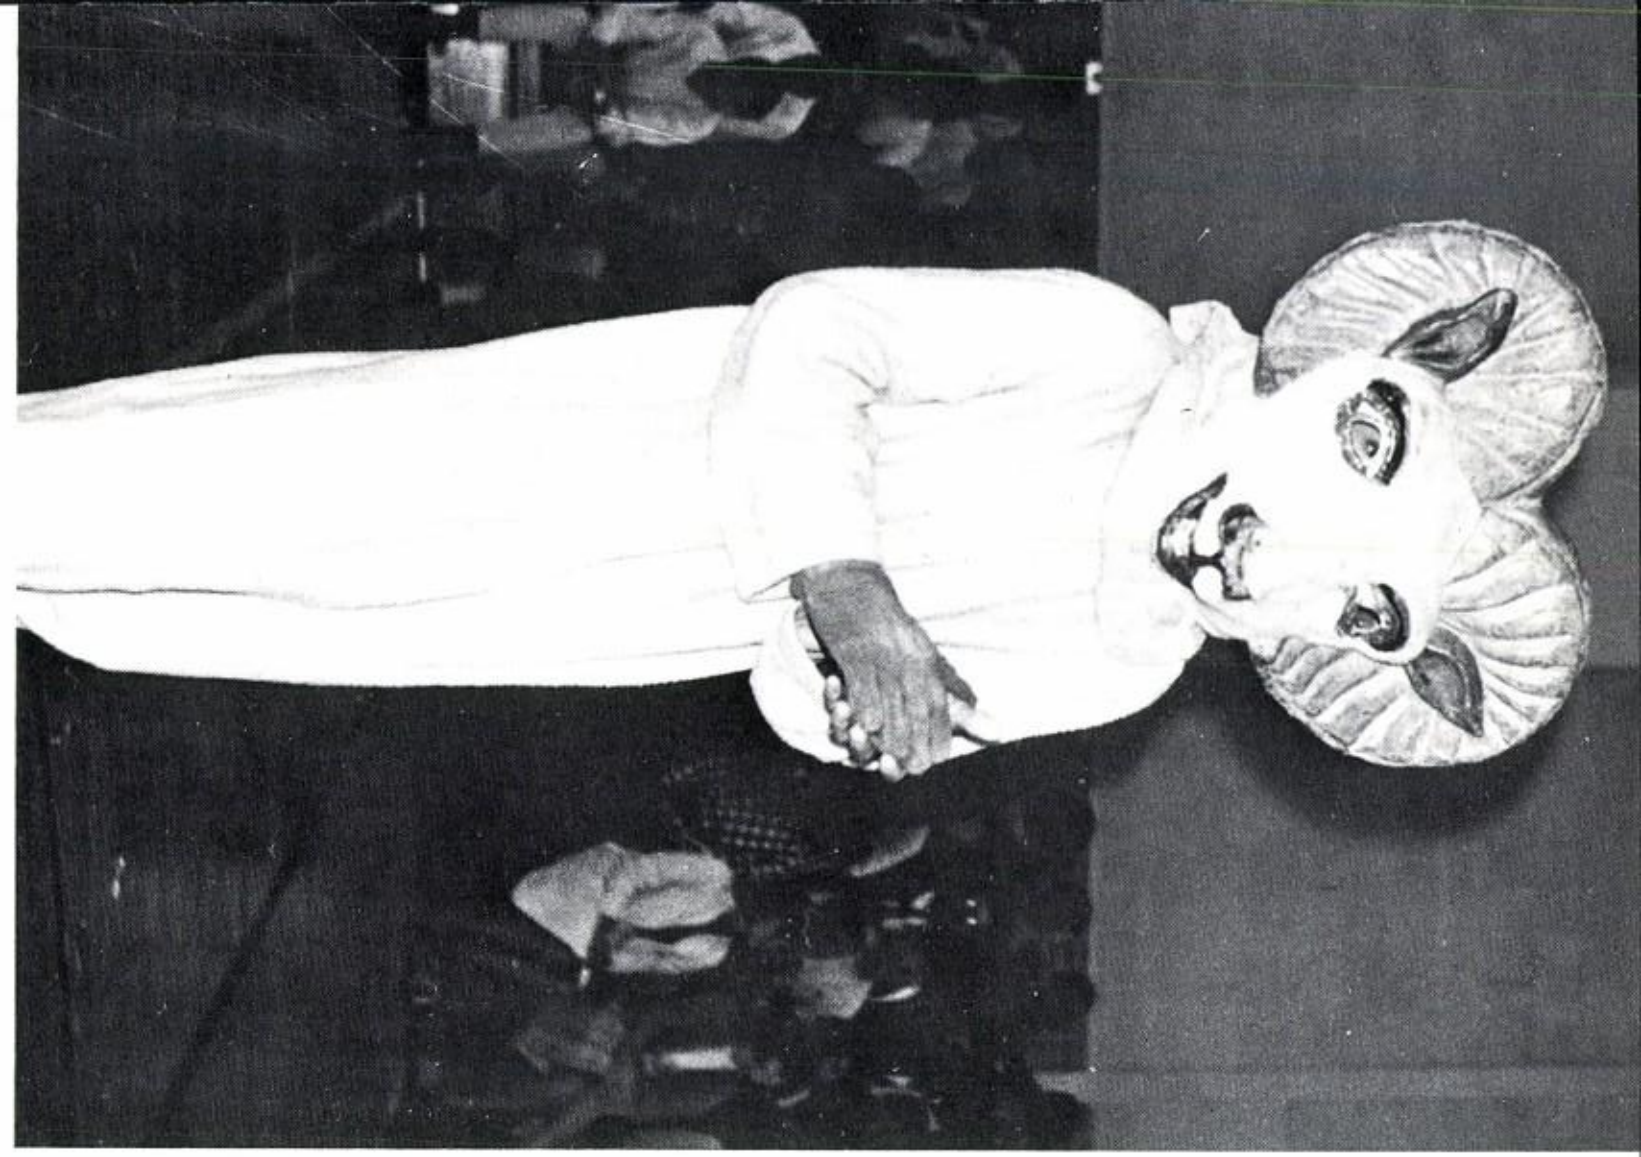
Buzzy Smith shows the power which won for him the title, "long-knocker."



Chipping is the best part of Eddie Gault's game.

Pink Kellett is a deadly putter from any distance up to three feet.

The Hillcrest golf team credits their success to long hours of hard practice.



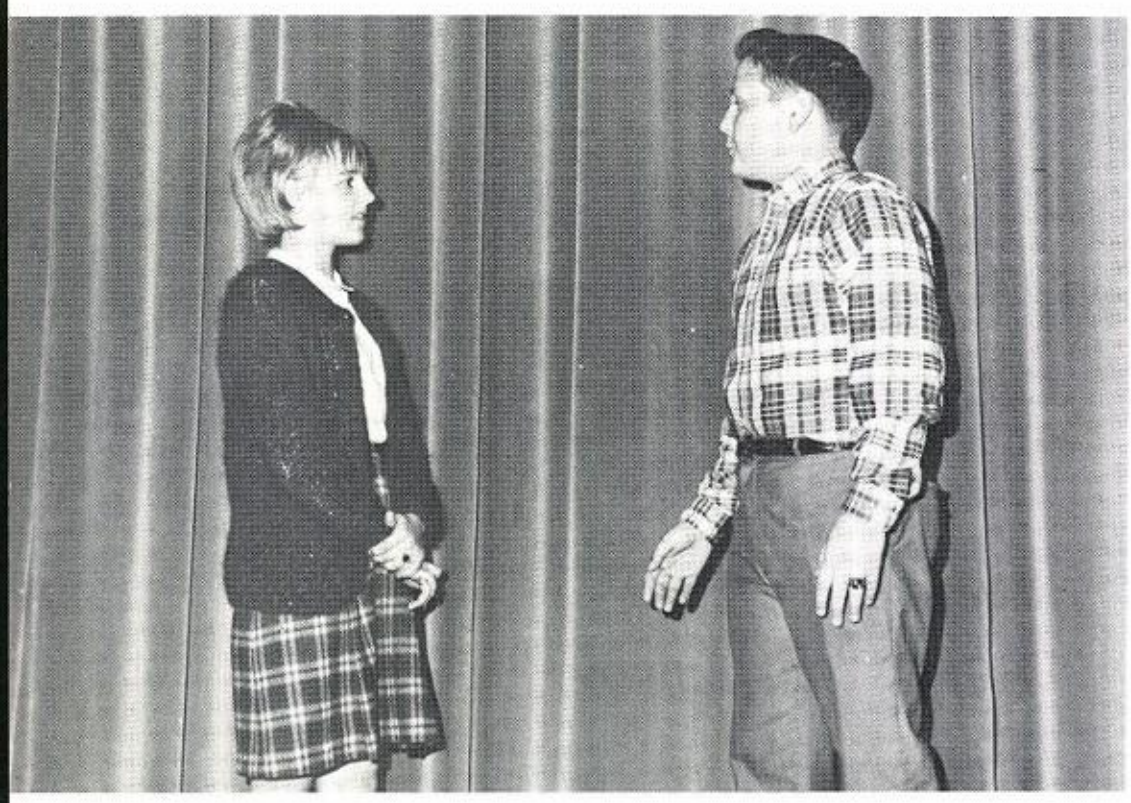
STUDENT BODY

EIGHTH GRADE

The youngest class at Hillcrest, the eighth grade, has become an active part of the school. Facing four more years of work here, the eighth-graders plan to make their stay as profitable and enjoyable as they can. This year they have also contributed much to the rest of the school through choral programs and skits. They are well on their way to becoming the leaders of Hillcrest.

Everything is apparently all smiles for homeroom presidents Berry Garrett and Jackie West.

Marjorie Jo, Sally, and Pat prepare to decorate the bulletin board for St. Valentine's Day.



Sheila Harris and Jeff Jones play the leading roles in the Thanksgiving skit for the student body.

"One year to go" is the thought of every eleventh-grader. "How can we bear those lucky seniors?" is their cry. The eleventh grade is one of great fun though, and its members feel a special comradeship as they stage the "Junior Follies" and the Junior prom. Already thinking of the future, many of them take the PSAT and National Merit tests.

SENIORS

If someone should ask us what this, our senior year at Hillcrest, has meant to us, we should be silent. For there is too much to answer in a word or on a printed page.From beginning to end the year has been packed with excitement—first receiving our rings; then getting ready for and presenting the talent show. Before most of us realized it, April had passed to May and it was time for the prom and graduation—occassions too wonderful to forget. So, now, with the same closeness and togetherness that began in the seventh grade, the class of '66 leaves an imprint on Hillcrest High School and prepares to meet a new and different world.

Senior class officers are left to right: Leonard Sprouse, Vice-President; Dan Balcombe, Secretary; Jeannie Johnson, Treasurer; Dennis Smith, Reporter; and Lewis Blackwell, President.
